

FRAUD ALERT

November 21, 2011

Subject: Masquerading Web Site: Helpwithmybank.com

United American Bank has Received the Following Announcement from the Department of Financial Institutions:

DFI is rebroadcasting a message that we received from the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC). The OCC has announced that the above mentioned Web site, "helpwithmybank.com," is attempting to masquerade as the legitimate site, "helpwithmybank.gov," and contains potentially damaging malware. The illegitimate site redirects the user to the legitimate site "helpwithmybank.gov" in an attempt to convince users that they are connecting to a legitimate site. Attempts to connect to the fake Web site could expose the user to harmful malware.

Any information that you may have concerning this matter should be brought to the attention of:
